Ida Lewis Yacht Club Junior Program EXPLANATION OF DISCIPLINE

ILYC Junior Program coaches and staff associated with the "ILYC" program, and parents associated with ILYC program, are responsible for ensuring that exemplary behavior is exhibited by all members of the program, at all times, for enforcing the rules, and to apply discipline when appropriate. The following are guidelines. The coaches and staff, and parents associated with chaperoning at travel events/practices, and the Boards of Directors, reserve the right and have the discretion to impose the discipline determined appropriate for the circumstances.

Level 1 Infractions may be handled at the discretion of the coach(s). Level 2 and Level 3 Infractions will be made in consultation with the particular parties at hand (coach/parent chaperone) and the Program Directors. Level 4 Infractions will be handled by the Program Directors/staff, and with the consultation of the Board of Directors.

Level 1 Infractions: Disciplined at coach discretion, usually verbal or written recognition of the infraction, and may include limiting practice time.

Example   Failure to obey instruction of coach or an adult associated with travel events/practices.

Level 2 Infractions: Disciplined by sending home from practice or removing from OTW competition for the remainder of the day.

Example   Failure to obey coaches' directions after two or more written or verbal warnings.

Level 3 Infractions: Suspension from 1 or more classes, and/or removal from the ILYC Program for the purpose of support at a regatta.

Examples   Purposely damaging or destroying personal property of others.

                     Repeated incidents of behavior unbecoming a member of the ILYC which includes, but is not limited to: rude treatment of or talking back to judges, coaches, RC, hosts, other members of any Ida Lewis Program and other competitors.

Level 4 Infractions: Expulsion

Examples   Using drugs, alcohol, tobacco or non-prescribed drugs.
                     Stealing.
                     Repeated Level 3 Infractions.
